

Three Faint Calls

The Greenhorns

No girl by my side
No girl for me to hold
No girl in my arms
No girl by my side

And as the night falls, I hear three faint calls

No name that I made
No name of my own
No name to myself
No girl wants my name

And as the night falls, I hear three faint calls

One begs me to return
The second pleads for me to stay
The third beckons me forever on

No use staying here
No use even trying
No use hanging 'round
No use anymore

And as the night falls, I hear three faint calls
