

Hi Rockers!

The Guess Who

Heaven only moved once yesterday
Before the moon and stars were born
Angels makin' love
And all along the coast of fear
Devil come screamin' and tear them down
Heaven only moved once yesterday
In a neon jungle far below
Bargain basement prayer
A mother mourns her dying child
Never people takin' the time to care
Heaven only moved once yesterday
Half the time they're tryin' to take 'em away
Everybody once we knew
Pay a dollar at the gate
A dead man gonna be comin' on through
Heaven only moved once yesterday
Don't you want me
Don't you want me
Baby, listen 'deed I do
Tell me lovin' things and the sounds I crave
Never let the chance roll by
But you'll be hanging from a sycamore tree
If you're dancin' with another guy
Well, don't you want me
Don't you want me
Baby, listen 'deed I do
I'll kill your kid sister, I'll murder your dad
I'll rip the lashes off your eye
I'll slaughter all your cattle and I'll burn your crops
If you're dancin' with another guy
Don't you want me
Don't you want me
Baby, listen 'deed I do
