

The Path To Immortality

The Hat

I have walked this earth for eternities Explored its every inch of devastation.
Searched without knowing what to search for. No
hope of escaping
this personal hell.

My three demons
unveil themselves.
My intellect. My hatred.
My insanity.
A vision appear before me. A world
without friends or foes.
I am everthing and nothing.

Dead and alive in my own universe. The path to immortality and salvation. Finally it all seems clear. I have discovered the path to immortality and salvation. I Praise the dark forces surrounding my soul.
I welcome the undoing of my being.
