

Seize The Day

The Haunted

Come closer, take a good look. Learn to love this face, you won't ever undo this reality.
I'll be right at the edge of your thoughts, like it or not.

Hey! Wait! Don't you walk away.

Like a snail,
crawling down the edge of a straight razor,
Losing no matter what.
There's no escape and no way to circumvene this.

Dead meat, dead beat, dead weight
we're all fucked and you know I'm right.
Here, get a load of this!
It's time you make up your own mind for once.

They will suck you dry like vampires until you do...

Your choice!
Don't let them steal your choice!
No more.

Remember yesterday,
to seize the day

I've travelled more miles and looked into more eyes than most men could ever dream.
The taste of blood never does quite leave,
once it's in it's hard to wash away
If you could see through these eyes of madness
perhaps you could understand?
These words go deep and deeper still is where you'll find the strength to move.

They will suck you dry like vampires until you choose...

Your choice!
Don't let them steal your choice!
Go forward!
And seize the day.
