

Thanks For Nothing

The Hellacopters

I've got a feeling you'll thank me in the end
Shaking hands with foes, getting stab on your friends

You don't know where you stand
But thanks for nothing you send
You don't know a word you said
Thanks for nothing you ran
You've been running

She gave me nothing lemme thin through cool
I bust my ass while you foolin' in your room

You don't know why you stand
But thanks for nothing you send
You know a word you said
Thanks for nothing you're at
You're running
You've been ruined, yeah

You can complain where you are, you'll seen soon
But thanks for nothing that's right with you yeah.

You don't know why you stand
But thanks for nothing again
You don't know a word you said
Thanks for nothing you ran
You're running
You've been ruined
You've been running
Yeah!
