

A Darkness In The Light

The Hope Conspiracy

Death as it shakes you
Death as it takes you
Don't you give it
A second thought
Hollow head
In a hollow box
Now sinking down
Give me your hand
Shut off your mind and burn
Burning away
Empty souls with empty eyes
Empty beds sell empty lies
You're fucking worthless
It always ends the same
Ashamed to know your name
Can't you hear them laugh
While you swallow
Your last breath
Death knows your name.
