

Color Me Once

The Inchtobokatables

Color me once,
Color me twice,
Everything gonna turn out nice.
Everlasting love, you gotta keep me from
These false alarms
Alarm, alarm I seem so sad.
Ring, ring I see her I'm glad.
Maybe, maybe the fire of her desire
Patience, patience said; the man,
Patience, patience, I can't understand.
Patience like a man and a wife.
I got patience on my neck like a coconut.
I say, Jack be nimble, Jack fall dead,
Jack bend over and give Jilly head.
Oh, you gotta help my body heal my soul.

Dead men working, a sinner, a saint.
Mixing up a pail of paint.
Painted the house, black as night,
When the sun came up the house was white.
Gotta go on, gotta go on,
We gotta go on, you gotta go on,
We gotta go on
