

Everything's Different Now

The Innocence Mission

Now we're in the yard.
Aunt Mary's car is coming, coming.
And all of our plans
are giants in this light.

CHORUS:

now that we're coming away.
We are coming away, everything's changed
Everything's different now.
Everything even the sun

You say suddenly you cannot see yourself out in the world
With your school suitcase
Tomorrow - well, you don't know,
you don't know

REPEAT CHORUS:

now that we're coming away.
We are coming away, everything's changed
Everything's different now.
Everything even the sun
