

When I Look Up

The Insyderz

I want to walk into your sanctuary
And all around me
The angels stop and stare
I want to lay my life
Down before you
I want to lay myself down
By your feet
And weep for joy
Taht we finally meet
Oh god

Did I do waht I was called to do
Did I do what you wanted me to Did I be the best that I could be
And will your mercy cover me
When I look up,
Will you be smiling at me
