

Stop, Look, Listen

The Irish Rovers

Listen while I tell you
Tales to warm your mind
Stop, Look, Listen.
See what you can find.

An orangutang who can sing
Pirate ships and gypsy kings
Now a horse who learned to fly
Don't know how. Don't know why.

Buy a car with Liquorice wheels
Driven by two jellied eels
But don't drive it at full pelt
Or the chocolate tires will melt

Do you know that smiling in your sleep
Means there are secrets that you keep
Locked up in boxes in your head
Wise men find them when you're dead
