

The Irish Reggae Band

The Irish Rovers

(A-one, a-two, a-three, a-four!)

In the land of song and music
Where the rum is close at hand
Oh, they sing and dance
And they find romance
To the Irish Reggae Band!
(Everybody!)

In the land of song and music
Where the rum is close at hand
Oh, they sing and dance
And they find romance
To the Irish Reggae Band!

We come from Paddy's green island
Where the dear, little shamrock grows
We come to this tropical diamond
Where the Marley music flows
Both our islands thrive on music
With a joy you can't conceal
The songs of the Mighty Sparrow
And the Irish Jigs and Reels!
(Here we go!)

In the land of song and music
Where the rum is close at hand
Oh, they sing and dance
And they find romance
To the Irish Reggae Band!

We sing a [?] [?] of soldiers
And leaving [?] Quay
Of sailor men and Colleens
And we sing Montego Bay
With the flute, guitar and banjo
The fiddle and steel drum
The bowl drum and the shakers, man
Oh, they make the music hum!

In the land of song and music
Where the rum is close at hand
Oh, they sing and dance
And they find romance
To the Irish Reggae Band!

In the land of song and music
Where the rum is close at hand
Oh, they'll sing and dance
And they find romance
To the Irish Reggae Band!

From Dublin down to [?] Kingston
From [?] to Donegal
They come from every part of the island
And we play for one and all!
We're seeking fun and laughter

On this warm, Jamaican night
No politics, no religion
There's no time to fuss and fight!

In the land of song and music
Where the rum is close at hand
Oh, they'll sing and dance
And they find romance
To the Irish Reggae Band!
(Bring her home man!)

In the land of song and music
Where the rum is close at hand
Oh, they'll sing and dance
And they find romance
To the Irish Reggae Band!

(Oh, green alligators
And long-necked geese
Oh the humpty-back camels
And Chimpanzees!
There were cats and rats and elephants
But sure as you're born
Oh, the loveliest of all was the Unicorn!
There were green alligators
And long-necked geese
Oh, some humpty-back camels
And some Chimpanzees!
Oh, cats and rats and elephants
But sure as you're born
Oh, the loveliest of all was the Unicorn!)
