

So

The Irrepressibles

So slowly we edge into each others arms
We look so holy that even your mother would be charmed
By the way that I kiss you like you were a girl
By the way that I kiss you like you are a boy

We're waiting for the earth to give, cause everyone wants to live.

I'll dream what I dream
I'll sleep when you sleep
You'll need what you need from me.... me....

Beautiful emotion helping me feel unreal
Head full of potion helping me break the seal
Have you ever been kissed like you were a girl
Have you ever been kissed like you were a boy! Yeah!

We're waiting for the earth to give, but everyone wants to live
I'll dream what I dream
I'll sleep when you sleep
You'll need what you need from me....

How I crave you each minute of every day
The love you given me is eating me away
Have you ever been kissed like you were a girl
Have you ever been kissed like you were a boy! Yeah

We're waiting for the earth to give, cause everyone wants to live
I'll dream what I dream
I'll sleep when you sleep
You'll need what you need from me....
