

Cinnamon Love

The Jayhawks

I live in a house on the sunny road
I live in a house on the sunny road
Cinnamon love won't tell me where to go
Cinnamon love won't tell me where to go

Ah where did I turn to
Did I see your reflection
It's so strong in the light
Where's it gone

Where did you see me
Where did you need me
I don't know
What you've shown
Once you lived there alone

I throw, walk away from a thousand stones
I throw, walk away from a thousand stones
Cinnamon love won't tell me where to go
Cinnamon love won't tell me where to go

Ah where did I turn to
Did I see your reflection
It's so strong in the light
Where's it gone

Where did you see me...

Ah where did I turn to
Did I see your reflection
It's so strong in the light
Where's it gone

Cinnamon love won't tell me where to go
Cinnamon love won't tell me where to go
Cinnamon love won't tell me where to go
Cinnamon love won't tell me where to go
