

Hide Your Colors

The Jayhawks

Best word is the silence
Stood by like a brother
Carried on the back
Stood there with the others

Not one of them forgave me
Kept out in the desert
Locked up with the keys
I never knew how it could be

Look what you asked for, don't be shy
You shouldn't hide your colors
You shouldn't hide your colors
You shouldn't hide

Someone laid a hand
Best remembered answer
Where you come to stand
Looking out my window

Not one of them was calling
Swept up in the ashes
Behind summer leaves
I never knew how it should be

Look what you asked for, don't be shy
You shouldn't hide your colors
You shouldn't hide your colors
You shouldn't hide

Everyday rolling by you
Everyday rolling by you
Rolling by you
Rolling by you

Look what you asked for, don't be shy
You shouldn't hide your colors
You shouldn't hide your colors
You shouldn't hide your colors
You shouldn't hide your colors
