

I'll Be Your Key

The Jayhawks

Hardly a stranger, years so unkind
Low expectations, only to find

Standing in the dark, you eclipse the sun
Did you feel the spark, I knew you were the one

I was so unused
I guess that you were too
Walking in our sleep
You had it pretty tough
Your heart has been locked up
I'll be your key

Dreamed you in April, dreamed you in may
I'll never leave you, if you ask me to stay

You can look around, tell me what you find
If I'm not enough, well nevermind

I was so unused
I guess that you were too
Walking in our sleep
You had it pretty tough
Your heart has been locked up
I'll be your key
I'll come inside
Just stick with me