

Quiet Corners & Empty Spaces

The Jayhawks

aside the wandering eye has opened a stare all the way bare and broken the start of a brand new adventure

hey now catch me quick before I walk away tell me if there's something I should say I'll find the quiet corners and the empty spaces not far a blue guitar is playing it drew me like it knew and it's saying

hey now
catch me quick before I walk away
tell me if there's something I should say

we drown in ups and downs neglecting the beauty of my sun is setting in the end there's no way in redemption

hey now
catch me quick before I walk away
tell me if there's something I should say I'll find the quiet corners and the empty spaces
hey now
tell me if there's something I should say
