

Six Pack On The Dashboard

The Jayhawks

Yeah, up there's a sixpack on the dashboard tonight
I get lonesome most of the time
I get to thinking about you most of the time

Yeah, there's some heartache in this beer joint tonight
I get lonesome most of the time
I get to thinking about you most all the time

A straight face can't hide
