

Jewel To Sparkle

The Juliana Theory

Please don't turn your eyes my way
They're unnerving and undeniable underneath the work that you do
O
I can feel the real you
I can feel the real you

You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrance in a morning I can not forget
You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrance in a morning I can not forget

You're smiling wide with slender frame
You're immovable in recollection underneath that real thing that you do
I can feel the real you
I can see inside you

You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrance in a morning I can not forget
You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrance in a morning I can not forget

You're a jewel to sparkle
You're a jewel to sparkle
Through my mind you wonder
Spelled to blind forever
Pain and ease together
Love can pull us under

You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrance in a morning I can not forget
You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrance in a morning I can not forget
