

Reggae Shark Returns

The Key of Awesome

Yeah yeah yeah
It's the further adventures
Of the Reggae Shark
When we last left Reggae Shark
They threw him a parade
For bringing peace to Kingston Town
Him got the taste of fame
And then he swam off to LA
And now Jamaica wears a frown
And all the children cry
REGGAE SHARK!
Can't believe ya left
You break our hearts
You showed us no respect
He got himself an agent
And an entourage
Produced a hit single for Nicki Minaj
He made a couple Movies
And he's on TV
And now he only smokes that prescription weed
Yeah mon, me take 400 pounds of the purple brain pillow
Got his own reality show
Meanwhile back home
There's Barracudas avusing the coast
Reggae Shark's new movie
Received terrible reviews
They said Reggae Shark has jumped himself
Him got so depressed
He went and drank a whole booze cruise
Caught his reflection
And thought
what's become of you
He barfed and out swam the jelly witch
And thought Hey that's my old nemesis
She said i've been in here the whole time
Controlling your tiny great white mind
Him slipped past the witch
And swam back home sayin'
Hey Barracudas leave da humans alone
They said Nope
So he smoked herb for an hour
Which gave him super munchie power
Munchie Power! Munchie Power
Told the barracudas
the party was through Ate them all
And had funyuns too
HOORAY!
Reggae Shark!
This is our favourite song
We'll never part
Twas the jelly witch all along
Where is that jely Bitch
She stole my car
