

I Bawled

The Kingston Trio

Took my girlfriend home the other night.
Got myself in an awful fight.
She said, "Do, do, darlin', won't you please come in?"
Her old lady socked me with a rollin pin.

And I bawled. (I bawled) I bawled (I bawled),
Oh, mon, you should have heard me bawl.
Well, I bawl when I feel the pin.
I don't meet with that old woman again.
Oh, yes, I bawled (I bawled) I bawled. (I bawled)
Oh, mon, you should have heard me bawl.
Well, I bawl when I feel the pin.
I don't meet with that old woman again.

Mon, the first time she hit me, she knocked me down.
Wouldn't even let me get off the ground.
I tried to tell of the rules of Queensbury.
She said, "Boy, cuts no ice with me."

And I bawled. (I bawled) I bawled (I bawled),
Oh, mon, you should have heard me bawl.
Well, I bawl when I feel the pin.
I don't meet with that old woman again.
Oh, yes, I bawled (I bawled) I bawled. (I bawled)
Oh, mon, you should have heard me bawl.
Well, I bawl when I feel the pin.
I don't meet with that old woman again.

Oh, mon, talk about eternity.
That's what that encounter seemed to me.
She start to sneeze and I started to run.
Gone like a bullet from a machine gun.

And I bawled. (I bawled) I bawled (I bawled),
Oh, mon, you should have heard me bawl.
Well, I bawl when I feel the pin.
I don't meet with that old woman again.
Oh, yes, I bawled (I bawled) I bawled. (I bawled)
Oh, mon, you should have heard me bawl.
Well, I bawl when I feel the pin.
I don't meet with that old woman again.
