The River Is Wide

The Kingston Trio

The river is wide, I cannot see
Nor do I have light wings to fly
There'll be a boat that can carry two
And both shall row, my love and I

My lvoe is like the lofty tree

It shudders fears and then sways free

If it should fade when the summer's through

She'll bloom again when the spring shines through

When love is young, then love is fine Just like a gem when first it's new But love grows old and waxes cold And fades away like the morning dew

The river is wide, I cannot see
Nor do I have light wings to fly
There'll be a boat that can carry two
And both shall row, my love and I
