Add It Up

The Kinks

The first time that I saw you, you were modestly waiting for a bus Now you're driving around in hired limousines And you talk so upper class. The cost is high, but it's not the only price you ultimately pay Add it up, you might have got some money But you lost me on the way Add it up, oh Add it up, oh Add it up, oh Add it up, oh Ah, Gucci, Gucci, Gucci Cartier, Cartier Gucci, Gucci, Gucci Add it up, You multiplied and multiplied but what's it leading to? Add it up, The only thing subtracted is the love I had for you So add it up, oh Add it up, oh Add it up, oh Add it up, oh Symbols of perversion and insanity Symbols of social immorality Symbols of economic cruelty Symbolize all what you did to me Ah, Gucci, Gucci, Gucci Cartier, Cartier Gucci, Gucci, Gucci Cartier, Cartier Money can't cover up the fact you're getting older every day And you can't disguise your sad little eyes that give your loneliness away Add it up, oh Add it up, oh Add it up, oh (2x)
