

She's Got Everything

The Kinks

I've got a girl who's oh, so good
She's got everything
I've got a girl and she is mine
She's got everything

Pretty ringlets in her hair
Pretty clothes that she can wear
What's she got?
Everything
Everything

All other guys just stand and stare
She's got everything
I ain't got a dime but she don't care
I got everything

I don't need money 'cause I got
Everything that I could want
What I've got?
Everything
Everything

I've got a girl who's oh, so good
She's got everything
She's got everything
She's got everything

And I can't live without her love
And I can't live without her kisses
She is mine forever, now
She's got everything
She's got everything
She's got everything
She's got everything

I've got a girl who's oh, so good
She's got everything
I've got a girl who's oh, so fine
She's got everything
She's got everything
