The Kovenant

Reach beyond the constellations
A movement towards the monumental
Universal secrets - the cosmic error
Sculptured by those dying generations
I drank the passions... of those lost in the paradox

As the stars touched my essence The last of all creations wept Paralyzed with wonder and confusion Blurred by the serpants temptation

I drank the passions of those lost in the paradox

Entangled in a swirling black aura of united burning chaos Anthems to the forgotten masters - A gathering equilibrium

Reach beyond the constellations
A movement towards the monumental
Universal secrets - the cosmic error
Sculptured by those dying generations

I wondered... as we beheld the world about us I knew... as I beheld the cosmos about me

Compelled towards the spiritual black dimensions aura
As I reached for outer dimensions, my spirit became complete
