

Endless

The La's

To swim the endless sea of tragedy
To end up on the rocks so helplessly
Not any raft of life to rescue me
Will ever anyone deliver me?
Of all the places, here I came
Ever changing, always the same
I've lost the rules unto this game
Ever changing, always the same

To swim the endless sea of tragedy
To end up on the rocks so helplessly
Not any raft of life to rescue me
Will ever anyone deliver me?
Of all the places, here I came
Ever changing, always the same
I've lost the rules unto this game
Ever changing, always the same
