

Might As Well Get Drunk

The Lacs

It's the perfect time to set em up
Throw em back and get her gone
Left me here with nothing much
Nothing but some drinking songs
All I got is plenty time, sit me on a bar stool
Doesn't matter any kind of Bourbon with some cold brew
I got a plan and I pray it's gonna work
Pretty soon if I ain't drunk I'm gonna think about her
There's a lot I could've done guess I ruined everything
Tried to tell you I was sorry but I knew you wouldn't stay
So hey, bartender can you put me in the zone
Here's a twenty Mr. Taxi, can I catch a ride home
Need another shot of courage and a bottle to keep Face down, passed out, I'm finally getting some sleep

I might as well get drunk tonight
A few shots at the bar oughta do me just right
Enough beer to get you off my mind
I might as well get drunk tonight
Might as well get drunk tonight

Bartender, one more round
I'm gonna get drunk as a skunk and baby that's my mission
Gonna get on a Corona and practice fast repetition

And did I mention that I fixed in a few shots at the bar
You know how I get when I get to drinking it hard Liquor called me the bigger quicker picker upper
Jim Beam straight now I'm a bad mother trucker
Yeah, I'm ten feet tall and bullet proof to some
A modern day holiday when it comes to a gun
One hell of a dancer and a smooth romancer
I'll show you Casanova how to get all the answers
Or at least I think I do in my intoxicated mind
I think I miss her, let's forget her, just one more time

I might as well get drunk tonight
A few shots at the bar oughta do me just right
Enough beer to get you off my mind
I might as well get drunk tonight

I might as well get drunk tonight
A few shots at the bar oughta do me just right
Enough beer to get you off my mind
I might as well get drunk tonight
I might as well get drunk tonight
I might as well get drunk tonight
I might as well get drunk tonight
