

Country folks we are gathered here today
To witness this ending of a season
That we call wintertime, now I want you to give Give wholeheartedly to your neighbor
If he's thirsty
And I want you to get them swimming trunks out
And I want you to get the boat hooked up
And I want you to get the cooler stocked up
With the finest adult beverages made
And then I want you to get out to the lake, or ocean, or river
And do what you do when summertime comes around
Skiff life, baby
Lac boys, let's get it

This right here's that summer time
Them tanned up honeys all love to ride
The boat's hooked up 'cause it's waking time
If you're waiting on me you just wasting time
Yeah I got a good old plan
Put it in the wind till I see no land
No rain, no rules, just rip and tides
Can't lie, I love living that skiff life

(Skiff life) Yeah, yeah, yeah
(Skiff life) I keep on living that skiff life
(Skiff life) Yeah, yeah, yeah
(Skiff life) Just so you know girl I'm a skiff guy
Yeah, yeah, yeah, I keep on living that skiff life

You ladies looking so damn good, you can't stand it
And your backside white girl, probably need to tan it
Peace winter time I can't stand it
You say goodbye to the snow football with Santa [?] when I pull up to the land
i got some dirt rocking on my way to South Kansas
I pen like a dog 'cause I'm jacked up damn it
Brought 96 beers, just one ham sandwich
Don't loose me I don't row no boat
That Suzuki on the back crunk ready to go
Got it made in the shade, don't apply to me
We'll be chilling where the hot sand burns your feet

This right here's that summer time
Them tanned up honeys all love to ride
The boat's hooked up 'cause it's waking time

'Cause them boys from the wood man we always stay broke Sandbar chilling, I can barely stay woke
And this thing getting big like some old [?]
Calling up the ladies and they say they might go
And the water looking if I must say so
In my camo boat and I'm feeling weight though
Cut your boy fresh, already they know
[?] wasn't looking at me and he don't play though
But we bout turned up we ain't tryna lay low
I hope you don't roll up and be a a-hole
Let's crack another beer and see how the day go, uh
