

Pedestal

The Left Banke

Put you on a pedestal
I'm gonna put you on a pedestal
Make you a queen, yes I will
Satisfy your everything, yes I will

You supply the cure
Of every little heartache that I've ever known
I'm going show you just how much I've grown
Hey, who would know?

It's so plain to see
I know it's time for me

To put you on a pedestal
Put you on a pedestal
Make you a queen, yes I will
Satisfy your everything, yes I will

You came in my life
Took away the weary days and made me strong
Made me feel just like a king on a throne
Hey, who, yeah?
Yes, it's plain to see
That it's time for me
To Hey

Hey, yeah!
