

Crumbs On The Carpet

The Legendary Pink Dots

Dinner whispers, "Come and get it"
Poses on the plate
We shot it twice with anesthetic,
Still it bites the waiters
Till they're bleeding in the loo
So goddamn hot it burns their shoes
We lick them clean, we eat 'em too

Still there's room enough for more masala,
Enchilada, monkey brains and donkey doos
More masala, enchilada, monkey brains and donkey doos
More masala, enchilada, monkey brains, donkey doos
More masala, enchilada, monkey brains, donkey doos
More masala, enchilada, monkey brains, donkey doos

We'd eat the wall if it could walk
And we could sink our forks in

We are what we eat
We are many-sided
Just you name it, sure we've tried it

We are what we eat
We are many-sided
Just you name it, sure we've tried it

We are what we eat
We are many-sided
Just you name it, sure we've tried it

Why hide it?

More masala, enchilada, monkey brains, donkey doos...
