

Cry

The Lemon Twigs

For the rights I have earned
Take a seat speak no words
For the truth I have picked
Serves no use not a lick

In this dream exists a lie
Save your scream tie your tie
For the truth I have picked
Serves no use not a lick

Prove you're not a liar
Why can't you cry?

In the nights long ago
There were lights in the room
Fortitude practising
Pictures are flattering

In this dream exists a lie
Save your scream tie your tie
Parachute to right now
Take your job let it out

Prove you're not a liar
Why can't you cry?

Prove you're not a liar
Why can't you cry?
