

If You Give Enough

The Lemon Twigs

I moved so quickly I thought I knew nothing
But what I had known all along
To be true in this plane
I was a baby born bound to all limits of Children whose blindness is taken for sight
All the same

You really think they can hold you
Don't listen to what they told you
Your life's only good as love
If you give enough

You wake up shaking from money you're making
Just wondering when will the day be that you
Lose it all
You've been astounded by dollars compounded
So much so that your sense of self has been shrunk
Very small

You really think that can save you
That which was made to enslave you
Your life's only good as love
If you give enough

Ah-ah-ah-aaaah
Ah-ah-ah-aaaah

You really think they can hold you
Oh, please don't let them destroy you
Your life's only good as love
If you give enough
