

Live in Favor of Tomorrow

The Lemon Twigs

Live in favor of tomorrow
Try and take the pain away
Loss and loneliness
Whisper in your ear and make you
Lost and lonely
It hurts you only
Wait until you see an open door

Joy is nothing without sorrow
Tears are the currency of pain
I'm so happy
When I feel the rush of Love that comes from gloom
'Cause I assume
That we meet because we yearn for something more

I know it's tempting
To embrace a fading flame
'Cause I fall victim all the time
To carrying my name around
Like it means something

I wanna give you all that I have borrowed
All of the love that makes me feel this way
Moments follow us
Give us just enough to show us
People care
And they're everywhere
Give a moment where there wasn't one before

But I know it's tempting
To embrace a fading flame
'Cause I fall victim all the time
To carrying my name around
Like it means something

Live in favor of tomorrow
Try and take the pain away
Loss and loneliness
Whisper in your ear and make you
Lost and lonely
It hurts you only
Wait until you see an open door
