

Falling

The Lemonheads

(Verse)

Saw you in the subway, twisting and falling
Train echoes in the stale air of a tunnel
Falling

(Chorus)

Spinning in circles, we lose all direction
And fall where no arms can come rushing to catch us

(Verse 2)

Saw you on the 14th floor, twisting and falling
Scream bounces in the bright sun of a canyon
Fading, hang on, don't wake up!
Hang on now, don't wake up!

(Chorus x2)

Spinning in circles, we lose all direction
And fall where no arms can come rushing to catch us
