Year of the Cat

The Lemonheads

On a morning from a Bogart movie
In a country where they turn back time
You go strolling through the crowd like Peter Lorre
Contemplating a crime

She comes out of the sun in a silk dress Running like a watercolor in the rain Don't bother asking for explanations

She'll just tell you that she came In the year of the cat

She doesn't give you time for questions
As she locks up your arm in hers
And you follow
'Til your sense of which direction
Completely disappears

By the blue tiled walls
Near the market stalls
There's a hidden door she leads you to

These days, she says,
I feel my life just like a river running through

The year of the cat Well, she looks at you so coolly And her eyes shine like the moon in the sea She comes in incense and patchouli

So you take her, to find what's waiting inside The year of the cat

Well, morning comes and you're still with her And the bus and the tourists are gone And you've thrown away the choice And lost your ticket So you have to stay on

But the drum-beat strains of the night remain In the rhythm of the new-born day You know sometime you're bound to leave her But for now you're going to stay

In the year of the cat
