

Believe

The Letter Black

Sometimes I feel like I'm alone
Hoping, praying You hear me
Screaming inside to ease the pain
Save me, keep me alive

I'm not afraid anymore
Of what I don't know

Believe, in the unknown (I put my faith, in the unknown)
Believe, in God alone (I put my hope, in God alone)
Have faith in what you don't know

Sometimes I feel like I have to cry
Until my emotions have run dry
I'm breaking inside to hide the pain
Save me, keep me alive

I know you're here
I can feel you now
I know your love embraces me

Give up all your sorrow
Have faith in what you don't know
In God alone
Have faith in what you don't know
You don't know
