

Moving On

The Letter Black

I don't care about you
I don't care about you, anymore

You hurt me
Lied to me
You earned my trust but then you
Betrayed me
My family
You wanted all control so
You cut down
Everyone
Who ever stepped in your way
But I'm moving on

I don't care about you
I don't care about you
No, I don't care about you anymore
I forgive you, now I'm moving on Moving on, moving on

Consumed by Selfishness
You wanted nothing less than
To see me
Leave because
I ruined all your plans so
You spread lies
Compromised
Me and my family's very lives
But I'm done with you

You're left in the past
But I'm not looking back
Anymore
