

All Is Lost

The Like

We've been down this road before
It leads back to another's door
Sitting by the headlights, glaring
Can't stop staring, can't stop swearing

All is lost again
This war is lost again

Lost in pools of empty threats
The mark is close, you place your bets
Drown your sorrows in your tears
And hope tomorrow's bored of this, cause

All is lost again
Yes, waiting for a friend

Bleed me white, black as night
And we're out of sight and out of mind
You check the clock, you're right on time but

All is lost again
Yes, waiting for the end

Bleed me white, black as night
And we're out of sight and out of mind
You check the clock, you run and hide cause

All is lost again
This war is lost again

You sang, "all is lost again"
