

Man Out Of Time

The Lord Weird Slough Feg

A man out of time
Succumbing to false pride
Abandoned the cause
I'm caught on the wrong side
Ageless matter fills mind blood and scatters
Time weighs heavy on shoulders of the brave

The curtain of time will fall on a dark age
The mighty will fall
But I'll overcome rage
Burled deep beneath the raging waters
Fortune, freedom, beyond the hand of time

I've fallen from grace
But stricken with reason
Your time has arrived
And I'm out of season
Ageless matter fills my mind and shatters
Burn the future, the past will come alive
