

Open Your Eyes

The Lords Of The New Church

When the heroes have all died away. Priests and politicians have all lied away now. Actors after all were only acting.
Church killed knowledge. Took the world a slave. Ya gotta walk it man just like ya talk it. Wear the uniform of your gang.
Purpose in life's just for living. Dream merchants fantasy surreal so real. Divide and conquer - that's their game.
Beneath their haircut and clothes we're really all the same.
They threaten our lives with nuclear war. Gonna crucify us just once more. Join the new church. Be a lord of the new church hey.

Truth can't be found on the television. Throwaway youth ya gotta take a stand. Music is your only weapon. Spanners in the works go start your gang.....

New church. Join the New Church. Be a Lord Of The New Church.
Lords Of The New Church - now.
