

The Nun's Litany

The Magnetic Fields

I want to be a playboy's bunny I'd do whatever they asked me to I'd meet people with lots of money and they would love me like I loved you

I want to be a topless waitress
I want my mother to shed one tear I'd throw away this old sedate dress slip into something a tad more sheer

I want to be an artists' model An odalisque, au naturel
I should be good at spin-the-bottle while I've still got something left to sell

I want to be a cobra dancer with Little Willy between my thighs I may not find a cure for cancer but I'll meet plenty of single guys

I want to be a brothel worker I've always been treated like one
If I could be a back-street lurker I'd make more money and have more fun

I want to be a dominatrix which isn't like me, but I can dream learn S, and M, and all those gay tricks and men will pay me to make them scream

I want to be a porno starlet (for that I'll wait till Mama's dead) I'll see my name in lights of scarlet and get to spend every day in bed

I want to be a tattooed lady dedicated, as I am, to art Characters bold, complex and shady will write my memoirs across my heart.
