

Beaten and Broken

The Mekons

Somebody woke me this morning
I didn't know where I was
The person I spent the night with
Just looked at me and sighed

Chorus:

I caught a train to Sheffield
But in my mind I was already in hell
I betrayed a friend
Beaten and broken to the end

Me, I just rolled over and died
Thinking about the things that I've done
Where you know they don't need to be repeated (?)
'Cos I lived there in a haze of disgust

Repeat chorus

Night goes so slowly
And the days they go so fast
I'd love to pass out on your shoulder
'Cos we're deep in a pocket of love
