

Special

The Mekons

baby when you're near me i feel special
i'm lying next to you
i'm so pure inside
you're my kind of ocean
blue waves crashing into me drag me down in your beauty baby it's so special so pure, so good
baby when you touch me
it burns
i bet your not afraid to let go feeling you move, you move me
you're running through me i recon the blood in my veins is keeping me alive
drowning deep inside
whatever you want
i'll do because it's special can you feel it?
it's so special
i'm yours i'll be your fantasy you move me this no fantasy!
i'm yours it's so pure so pure so real
can't you feel it?
so special
