

Kentucky Gentlemen

The Menzingers

The glob of cherry tips are dancing in the streets
Left like the world where man and soul meet
Well the clergy's left jobless, the judge been replaced
With varicose laughter and unending face
So long Ohio
It's been short and sweet
We'll see you again where man and soul meet
And say hi to Virginia it's been months since our meet
And tell James I'll carry his torch for week
Cause I've got a purpose and I've got a place
This four wheels this hunger and the saving grace
I know the righteous one
I saw him staring back at me and I know the righteous one
I found him waiting by the sea
I know the righteous one
I saw his working caveat to follow me, to follow me.
So long Ohio
It's been short and sweet
We'll see you again where man and soul meet
