

Michael Myers

The Meteors

Samhain

Michael Myers is back again
bringin' all the trouble
bringin' all the pain
got no conscience
got no mind
got no reason
and he hates mankind

Halloween night, '74
lock all the windows
who's at the door
hide the knives after you eat because Michael Myers is coming Trick-or-Treat!

Doctors locked him up
fifteen years ago
he don't remember
he doesn't know
now he hates us all the time
because Michael Myers
has lost his mind

bringin' all the trouble
bringin' all the pain
got no reason
got no rhyme
got no conscience

He's got brains deep in his head you can't kill him
'cause he's already dead
he's got the strength of darkness now
the strength of twenty anyhow he's got girlies in his mind scarred fingers and a rageous brain
six bullets buried in his chest we'll never stop him
if that's our best

got no conscience
and he hates mankind, yeeaahhh...

He's got a butcher's knife

he does his work
what he gave started
he won't shirk
you won't laugh and he won't cry on his anniversary you could die he's wetted his chops and now he's out but you won't see him move about he's out for blood
he's got a thirst
goodbye to that happy
thirty-first
