Riot on Broad Street

The Mighty Mighty Bosstones

My father once told this to me Boston city's gritty history Ano ther ruthless battle In a useless holy war Handed down discrepa ncies And tensions that will never ease One early afternoon on Broad Street It blew up down there for sure Broad Street 's jus t not broad enough And you just don't love God enough And if th at isn't odd enough We've taken too much crap You've pushed us 'round the sod enough We've scrapped and rapped and jawed enoug h You poke, provoke, and prod enough Something's gonna snap. Th e Boston fire-fighting volunteers On their way to fight a fire somewhere Met with a funeral procession Proceeding way too slow A brownstone burns out of control We need to lay to rest this soul Loggerheads on Broad Street Eye to eye and toe to toe Broa d Street 's just not broad enough And you just don't love God e nough And if that isn't odd enough We've taken too much crap Yo u've pushed us 'round the sod enough We've scrapped and rapped and jawed enough You poke, provoke, and prod enough Something's gonna snap Riot down on Broad Street Hand me a brick, a stick, a picket Bottle, axe or cobblestone Riot down on Broad Street If I'm going down Hell, I'm not going down alone I won't go dow n alone. When the fight was over They retired to the Clover Sil ver Dollar, Thirsty Scholar Whatever pubs they had back then Th e brownstone was in ashes Broken bones and bloody gashes A cask et sat on Broad Street til the sun came up again Broad Street's just not broad enough And you just don't love God enough And i f that isn't odd enough We've taken too much crap You've pushed us 'round the sod enough We've scrapped and rapped and jawed e nough You poke, provoke, and prod enough Something's gonna snap Riot down on Broad Street Hand me a brick, a stick, a picket B ottle, axe or cobblestone Riot down on Broad Street If I'm goin q down Hell, I'm not going down alone.
