

Mighty Good Lovin'

The Miracles

A mighty good loving baby
Is gonna change the way you act
It's gonna make you mine and make you feel so fine
And that's a natural fact
When I get you by your hand
You're gonna let me have your heart
Little girl it's true there'll be nothing you can do
When mighty good loving gets a hold on you

It's mighty good now hey yeah
It's mighty good now hey yeah hey yay
It's so good it's so good
It's so good now it's so good
Little girl it's true there'll be nothing you can do
Oh when mighty good loving gets a hold on you

Well-a it's a mighty good feeling baby
When you know that your love is true
When you know that your man is gonna understand
And do everything he can for you
You're gonna let him have your hand
You're gonna let him have your heart

Oh when mighty good loving gets a hold on you
