The Ruling Class

The Monochrome Set

My old man's a Viscount
And he wears a Viscount's crown
He buys me Cardin trousers
Of a tasteful shade of dark brown

He got his blue at Oxford And he pays my boating fees He sends me Fortnum's hampers So that I won't get hungry

He was my man and he done me wrong He was my man and he done me wrong

My old man's an earl now And he wears an ermine gown He sends me an allowance To spend in Eton town

He drives a yellow Bentley And he beats me with his wrench He hires me private tutors To help me in my French

He was my man and he done me wrong He was my man and he done me wrong

My old girl's a duchess
And she wears a Hartnell frock
She's picked me out a Cheltenham girl
Of Suffolk breeding stock

My young fag's an MP's son And he warms my toilet seat I thrash him with a whip To make his character complete

He was my man and I done him wrong He was my man but it done him good
