

I Was Wrong

The Morning Benders

I've seen love kick a man while he stand when you think that you're alone You cover it up just to stay on your feet but the cut is just too deep

I was wrong
when I said "you were right" Cause it's no fun when everything is so nice

But I've been waiting too patiently for life to turn it's back on me and not just go my way

All down the line it's hard hard to believe that we ever lived apart Sometimes a girl can make you forget we've been alone since the start

There's no fate like a healthy break Now I've got no heart left to ache

'Cause everything was so perfect back then I don't understand why we can't let it stay that way
