

Future Feeling (Afraid Of Drugs)

The Movieline

I'm afraid of drugs but more than anything
Petrified of why I'm gonna need them

You shouldn't have left me alone in consciousness
I can hear you breathing. Are you still awake?

Cause I'm waiting
On a future feeling
At 4 in the morning.
How did I get here?

I gave all my love. You don't even try anymore.

Leave me here to put the pieces back
Together. It's not that serious, it never is.

Cause we long for happiness in solitude.
And the burden lies on everyone else.

Cause I'm waiting
On a future feeling
At 4 in the morning.
How did I get here?

I gave all my love. You don't even try anymore.
Would it kill you to have compassion for anyone else?
Oh my love, you're ever so slightly
Doing my fucking head in, in the interval.

Cause I'm waiting
On a future feeling
At 4 in the morning.
How did I get here?
