

Numb

The Muffs

You and I are different
And I know why
You are not completely there
And you wonder why you don't cry

If you open up you'll see
It's a new life
Wonder why, you wonder why
You're numb

I never liked to think or feel
So you don't now
Never missed a thing you think
But you wonder why you're not happy

If you open up you'll see
It's a new life
Wonder why, you wonder why
You're numb

Until you hate you will never know
What love is
Until that day you will never feel
A thing, yeah

If you open up you'll see
It's a new life
Wonder why, you wonder why
You're numb

You wonder why, you wonder why
You're numb
You wonder why, you wonder why
You're numb, you're numb
